

ENNEAGRAM WORKSHOP

How many times have you been puzzled by the behavior of your spouse, children, friends, or co-workers? You just don't understand them. Come and learn about the Enneagram, a dynamic system of nine personality types, in a unique format of listening to representatives of the nine types describe their inner experience and patterns of thinking, feeling and responding. Your insights from this entertaining and informative workshop will instantly improve your self-understanding, enhance your relationships, increase compassion for others' worldviews, and provide a direction for your own psychological and spiritual growth.
