

The Enneagram of Harmony

April 26, 2014, Saturday, 9:30am-4:30pm, Boulder

Sponsored by Enneagram Studies in the Narrative Tradition
Cost: $95; early bird before 4/11 and full-time students $80

What if there was another way to draw the connecting lines of the Enneagram symbol? There is and it's called the Enneagram of Harmony. The Enneagram of Harmony will help you discover yourself anew through a perspective that uncovers often hidden resources held by the orientation of each of your centers of intelligence – body, heart, and mind. It deepens the capacity for self-understanding and transformation.

Doesn't it seem curious that types Two and Four have no connection to the Head Center and types Five and Seven have no connection to the Heart Center? The Enneagram of Harmony creates three equilateral triangles in which each type has a foot in all three centers of intelligence, connecting 3-6-9, 2-5-8, and 1-4-7. We've had a tendency to think of ourselves as Head types or Heart types or Body types. This is inaccurate. As human beings, we all have three centers of intelligence and there is a dynamic flow that operates between them.

The effect of working with the system from this perspective enhances our connection to each center as we see more fully how it tends to orient. It can bring unconscious behaviors, desires, and beliefs into the light of awareness. The Enneagram of Harmony lights the path of our evolutionary potential as we develop greater capacity to access our innate intelligences.

This class is presented in the Narrative Tradition, which brings the Enneagram to life through interview and inquiry of the nine Enneagram types. The panel method quickly builds community and supports learning through the mind, heart and body.

Online registration available soon. To register by phone, contact Barb Allgaier at 866-241-6162, ext. 1 or programs@enneagramworldwide.com.

Renée Rosario, MA, LPC, is a certified Enneagram teacher and core faculty for Enneagram Studies in the Narrative Tradition with Helen Palmer and David Daniels. She has facilitated workshops and classes for 12 years locally and nationally.

Renée is also a transpersonal, body-centered psychotherapist in private practice in Boulder, CO. She utilizes the Enneagram, EMDR, HeartMath, and Mindfulness practices along with other spiritual and traditional modalities in her therapy practice. She is a graduate of Naropa University.